

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rh1WCzfCP24>

1. Figure out what works, and do it. (On Lee Kuan Yew, 21:30)
2. Pretend to be a little better than you are. Because, you become what you pretend to be. (Hypocrisy & Philanthropy, 22:30)
3. Specialisation is the safest way up for more people. But, I never liked it. (Specialization vs Broad-based education, 25:04)
4. 2 things do enormous damage to the bearer: resentment and hatred. (US Politics Today, 30:00)
5. We all live with the natures we were given and we just have to make do. (On Being Humorous, 39:15)
6. It's a huge advantage in life, if you like problem solving. It's worth about 20 IQ points. (Problem Solving, 39:50)
7. I have a good mind, but I'm not a prodigy. But my results in life are prodigious. And that came from a few basic tricks. (Financial Success, 44:00)
8. I invert all the time. I have a whole bag of tricks like that. (Financial Success, contd.)
9. Another trick is to constantly go back to the basics. (Financial Success, 50:40)
10. We knew enough to act. You don't need perfect. If you're 96% sure, that's all you're entitled to in many cases. (Stock Picking & Due Diligence, 52:45)
11. The weaker they are as thinkers, the more due diligence they do. (Stock Picking & Due Diligence, Contd.)
12. My technique is to find the people who have the sprouting and then, fertilise them greatly. (On Giving Advice to the Young, 55:30)
13. One of the great tricks in life is to destroy your own best loved ideas. I actually go through my best loved ideas, and see if I can weed one out. (Best Loved Ideas, 56:53)
14. It is sinful to be dumber than you had to be. (Remove Your Own Ignorance, 1:05:28)
15. We all start out stupid, and we all have a hard time staying sensible. And you have to keep working at it. (Almost Not Buying See's Candies, 1:10:09)